NOVEMBER 2009

Volume 11, Issue 1

30th ANNIVERSARY—It was a lovely night and to meet the remaining original board members and hear their stories from 30 years ago was truly special! The $1000 raffle went off with a bang, with winners truly appreciative of their haul. Check out the pics on page 2

BOWLS Big month with the McGrath and Guardian Pharmacy Days and the Pennant Finals all being held—see how we fared on page 3.

QLD HOLIDAY UP FOR GRABS! GRAND DRAW MONDAY 16TH NOVEMBER 7PM. All finalists plus those who would like to be in with a last chance BOOK NOW to avoid missing out on your seat! There is still time to get in the draw, just make sure you grab a ticket when you dine on Mondays, Tuesday or Wednesday evenings in the RSL or at Suko Thai. Details Page 4

BINGO - Going great with the Phil/Karen combo—so if you have not played before or want a laugh come along Thursday mornings and we will show you how! Eyes down at 9.30. A $500 Jackpot is up for grabs.

BOTTLESHOP BARGAINS— November Special is the lovely Marlborough NZ Sauv Blanc “Brass Razu”. At just $15.99 it is worth a test run.

MEMBERS DRAWS Congratulations to Kay Williams who won the $1000 at the Bowls Club which has now completed. We still have Thursday and Sunday evenings at the RSL which have not been won as of print 21/10. MEGA RAFFLE— The Xmas Hampers are on display and tickets for sale at just $1. There are 8 of them each valued at $200, and you do not need to be here to win.

SMILE FOR A CHILD— Congratulations to all those that supported this cause and bought raffle tickets - the whole event raised just on $40,000 for terminally ill children. Well done! Winners of the raffle were 1st Steve Kinny, 2nd Wally Manders, 3rd Michael Hutchin. Congratulations to our Cooroy boys who won the Golf—aren't they gorgeous?!

MELBOURNE CUP—BOOK NOW!!!!

RENEWALS— If you renew your membership between November 30 and December 31 you will go into the draw for a reviving 2 nights stay plus breakfast and massage by Nanette from Picture Perfect at the wonderful Cudgerie Homestead. Your hosts Steve and Veronica Hall will ensure your getaway is memorable—what a way to get over the Christmas season! Drawn on New Years Eve and you do not need to be present to win!

HOHOHO—Can you believe that it is nearly Christmas...AGAIN? Grab your diaries and jot down these important dates....

Bowls News

Lots of biggies for the month with the McGrath Family Day, The Guardian Pharmacy Ladies Day, and of course, Pennants! The McGrath Day was again a wonderful event with the bonus of raising funds for Super challenge 2010. Congratulations to the hybrid team of Yani and Gary Mitchell, Bruno Ratini and Ellie Josephsen (Pacific Paradise) who played outstandingly to beat our own team of Sandra & Ben French, Helen & Eric Kenzler. The 1st Round winners were Penny & Michael Hannant, Bryan & Margaret Dodd (Noosa) 2nd Round winners were Trish Wesley, R. Butler, B. Mahoney & Y. Pattinson from Cooroy. Congratulations to the McGrath Family on another successful event and many thanks to all who played.

The Guardian Pharmacy Ladies Day was brilliant! Winners were Roger Linklater, Bevan Mahoney, Leo Sorrenson and Jenelle Hurst with R/Up - Marion Burrell, Sid Robinson, Alan McGrath, Margaret Vance. 1st Round winners-Col Nalder, Trish Wesley, John Dean & Glenda Rohde. 2nd Round winners -Peter Bennett, Bill Haack, Ben French & Sandra French. Congratulations to all and many thanks to Tanya and Guardian Pharmacy on a great event!

Round 2 of the Club Mixed Pairs Championships saw Ben and Sandy French defeat Yvonne Pattinson and Russell Butler in fine form, and Steve and Jenny Moore ousting Helen and Eric Kenzler. Definitely a battle of the Mr. & Mrs. with the French's playing the Moore's in the Final. Well played everyone.

Our tears are still flowing over our defeat in the SCDMBA Pennants Division 4 final to Yandina at Coolum Beach. Those mighty country men used the gusty and fast greens to give our boys curry with our 3 teams skipped by Neil Brown, Eric Kenzler and Alan Burrell all suffering losses. Similarly, the Division 7 teams played fantastically and won their last match at home to Pelican Waters. However, here the fairy tale ends, because Maroochy Swan managed a win against Tewantin Noosa and thus prevented Cooroy taking the Pennant. Congratulations to Maroochy Swan on their title, but also congratulations to Cooroy for a fine second place in both divisions. It was thrilling to see Cooroy up there! Well done, and see you for drinks at Presentations!

Tuesday High Rollers - Rusty Buts head the field on 18 with Golfers and Brownies both on 17 in hot pursuit! There is now only one vacancy and that is in Nascars, so if you would love a game give Yvonne a call.

Wednesday Good timers - Who can beat those amazing Butch & Boys? Is it their secret weapon of skip Scotty Christensen and his fine guidance? Or is there something else going on here? The next few weeks will tell! P Platers remain win-less, and the ladder looks pretty sturdy with Butch and his motley crew on 27, the Three RS and PDS on 26, Coach and Co on 23 with everyone else close behind. Very close!

Thursday Carramar Day Marion Burrell, Trish Wesley & Alan McGrath. Thursday Pairs Winners, Russell Butler and Tricia Wensley Friday Mufti Pairs Week 1 Carol Blake, Peter Wilkins, Bettina Winkler and Max Biddulph

For those who missed out on getting into the Master Class with Shooley please put your name with Yvonne or Russell and soon as a vacancy comes up you will be notified.

Business Bowls 2010 is getting geared up, and we invite businesses to put their team of 3 in for great networking, contacts and exposure. Participating businesses also get a position on the card racks at both Clubs - so call Sandy on 54476131 and secure your spot now!

For all information on games please check out our website www.cooroyrs.com.au or call the club on 54476051. Happy Bowling!
