Guardian
PHARMACY

The bowling event of the month was the Annual Ladies Trophy Day proudly sponsored by Guardian Pharmacy. Teams came from Pomona, Buderim, Palmwoods, Tewantin and Coolum to try to grab the goodies. Congratulations to winners Glenda Rhode, Sid Robinson, Edna Smith and John Kenzler (Cooroy) and Runners Up Anne Mikkleson, R. Weishaupt, S Squires and P Wald . Thank you to Sandy French and the other Cooroy Ladies for a great day.

The social weekend of the month was the opening of the new Suko Thai Restaurant. The food was fab and very affordable, the guests including an assortment of RSL management, staff and their guests, as well as the Steve and Noi support group made sure that both nights were chaotic! So for those that have not been, it is now time to give it a go – open Wednesday to Sunday both Lunch and Dinner. Keep your eye open for Steve's upcoming deals!

Men's Pennants continues with mixed results so far. Our Division 4 lost to Yandina, Tewantin, Palmwoods and defeated Noosa Heads. Division 6 lost to Caloundra, Noosa Heads, Mapleton and defeated Tewantin! They ARE consistent! Our Ladies Division 7 side did not fair any better but had a great time, with Mooloolaba coming out as the overall winners. Maybe some sessions needed with the coaches(or Sid's new bowls and knee) before next season– round 'em up Kennedy!

Mon Night Bowlers Dot comp got off to a great start with 8 teams commencing their climb on the ladder.

Business Bowls opening night was attended by representatives of the Clubs Major Sponsors Guardian Pharmacy, ANZ, and AIS Insurances. Drinks were enjoyed by all though the sporting prowess of some of the teams (The RSL?) left a lot to be desired! Congratulations to winning teams Probus, Cooroy Motel, PGH and Bus Drivers on your start up the ladder!

Thursday Pairs Week 1 Sandy French and Jim Toppinen. Week 2 Washed Out. Madill's as usual was full with the dollars all heading out of town! Congratulations to winners D Birt and D. Coulter,runners up to R. McComb and L. James. 1st Rd winners R. Weishaupt and J. Moorecroft, 2nd Rd winners Ian Ramsden and Bruce Armour.

Friday Social Pairs Week 1 Sandy French and Neta Sondergeld Mufti Triples went to Arthur Vonhoff, Nacy Duffield and Bruce Coventry.

Sundays 3 set singles Series 1 was won by a visitor from Gladstone, Lozza Gall, with runner up Col Nalder Series 2 Alan McGrath, with the "vinegar cuppa man" Russell Butler as Runner Up (long story!)

The Schools Program continues and we welcome at present Cooroy State School every Friday.

Our juniors received some top level tips in a training session with Shooney before he kidnapped our Sandy B to the depths of Greece on what we hear is an elopement? Does that mean our guys get free coaching in future? lol We are calling for any juniors from other clubs in the area who would like to play in an end of year challenge to call Bevan. Our guys are ready and eager, and it is important for them to develop games and venues experience, as well as to keep them interested! So far, we have found a source at Coolum Beach, but need more!

September also hosted a Skills Coaching Clinic and it was good to see new players Trish and Dell join the more experienced on the green. Thanks to Bevan who was a last minute replacement for Kennedy who got winged.

Barefooters and beginners ! The greens are open Friday nights for you as well as experienced players to have some fun, get in some practice or even host your own comp under lights. ! Just $5 per player includes all equipment. Helpers available if you have a group.

Please note - Sunday 3 set Singles are now played monthly (more if we have the numbers) so book your spot to test your mettle. Saturday Jackpot Pairs will resume once Pennants is over.

For new members, social (CT) membership is just $8 for the remainder of the year. So join up so you can participate in Mega Rewards or be eligible to win the P&O Cruise
