BOWLS

The final of the Mixed Pairs Championship WAS a titanic clash with Ken McGrath & Marg Dawson making it very clear to Jim Toppinen and Yani Mitchell that they were in form and not be reckoned with! Congratulations to both sides on an excellent final.

Our Men's Pennants sides were seen crying over spilt milk with losses in both divisions to Mooloolah Valley and Coolum Beach. Congratulations to both Tewanin Noosa and Pelican Waters who took out this year Div 4 and 7 Pennant respectively – and well done to all our players who fought bravely! As they say – next year...

The huge McGrath Family Day filled the greens with many good bowlers who vied for the status if not the trophy! Congratulations to Ian Ramsdens team who came home ahead of teams skipped by Jim Toppinen, Ken McGrath and Alan Burrell. A great day and many thanks to the McGrath Family and all players on another wonderful annual.

Pinktober finally got a sunny day with 39 on the green giving it a go for Breast Cancer. It is on again (weather permitting!) each Sunday in October at 3pm with free Barefoot Bowls & Sizzle. Everyone welcome to come along for some Sunday fun and to donate a gold coin for this great cause. Beginners and children very welcome - book your rink by calling the Club.

They play Bias next week, so that will be a tough match for them. Wednesday Handicap Singles - Rosalie Kirkman defeated Carol Blake in the semi final. Bill Mason will play Dennis Coulter next week with the winner facing the very in form Rosalie in the final. Wednesday Business Bowls The ladder sees a new leader with that mighty hybrid team the Jokers laughing their way to overtake the Reggies and Cooroy Carparts.
