The AGM on Sunday 13th thanked Club tireless stalwart Bill Edwards OAM for his endless years of dedication serving on the Board, who has taken a "short term" break to dedicate some time to his family and other endeavours, and welcomed well known local identities, former Noosa Shire Councilor Ray Kelly and Chamber of Commerce Executive Danielle Taylor to the team. Congratulations to all Board Members on your appointments and thank you from the community for taking on another busy 12 months which includes the continuing endeavours to obtain funding to renovate the Memorial Hall and upgrade the Club's facilities. Our gorgeous Phil is currently painting the exterior of the Club so if you see him out there don't be shy to grab a brush and lend a hand!

Joanie Boyce hosted a wonderful Variety Show on the 5th in aid of the SES and the Red Cross which raised a whopping $3000. Local polliie Peter Wellington last week accompanied by representatives from both organisations presented Joan with a certificate in appreciation for her works—well done Joanie!

Our next fundraiser is the Trivia in support of the Cooroy Family Support Centre so come along and have some fun.

ANZAC DAY - See Page 2 for the Anzac Programme.

THE SOCIAL SCENE "The Spirit of Anzac" soiree with poetry, music and song that lifted the soul was another wonderful evening in which to enjoy some culture and good company. Come along and check out the art works by the Tinbeerwah group—a % of sales goes to our Sub Branch so you are helping do good works!

WINNERS CIRCLE Lucky members this month were plenty with Lynn Choyce winning the Members Swipe New Years Recovery, Clifford Hallam & Margaret Gittens the 100 Club, David Young the Diners Draw, and the biggie was the Trivia Grand Final which saw the finalists from the 2010 series battling it out for top honour. Winners with the first perfect score of 60 ever went to the Jokers from Caloundra. They selected the Katie Rose Cottage to receive $500 in cash for their efforts. The Thickwitts and Furlings 1 took out the placings. Congratulations to all!

BOWLS

The Superchallenge season continued to be a bit rough, with both our ladies and men struggling to find form to get them into any placing's. Congratulations to all players and better luck next year.

Cooroy 'B' Singles & Fours semi-final - Bruce Coventry defeated Rodger Linklater 25 shots to 16 & Colin Nalder defeated Gary Kenzler by the same margin. The final is scheduled for 1 pm Sunday 27th March. The Men's fours final between Eric Kenzler and Bert Hyatt is scheduled for 09:30am on Sunday 27th March.

St Patrick's Day Triples was a great day, Cooroy players shared the green with visiting teams from Pomona, Yandina, and Palmwoods. The Palmwoods team took home the winners money, while Kennedy McGrath, Margaret Dawson, and Joy Brown managed to edge out Alan McGrath, Claire McGrath and Trish Wesley from the runners-up prize on a count back.

The Ladies Mixed comp on Wed morn has been cancelled whilst Yani looks after Garry in his recovery. Get better soon Gazza!

High Rollers steam rolls along with the ladder looking a bit bizarre due to the names we think! Top 3 places currently 2RJS, 3B'S and TEAM 12.

The Wednesday Handicap Singles Week 1 Jenny Lonie (Tewantin) +22 Week 2 Jack Kirkman with +16 Week 3 Rosalie Kirkman +16. This puts her in the finals with Jennie Lonie, Kennedy McGrath and Dennis Coulter. $210.00 is up for grabs

Business Bowls New teams The Renderers, Ricks Lawn Care and Ray White plus a host of new players has made for a rowdy comp with Kenny Christensen at the helm and the famous 3 "colour TV's "up for grabs, it is set to be a blockbuster! Ladder leaders at the moment are SCE Constructions and AIS Insurance.

Thursday Night Singles Week 1 Roley Hassall on 21 margin and Noel Johnstone on 26 points Week 2 John Sedman had his 15 minutes of fame this week with an 11 point margin. week'3 Lester Krosch with a margin of 26. He is also leading the series with a total score of 42.

Thursday Progressive triples now been rescheduled for the 1st Thursday of each month at 12:30pm, winners for the inaugural game were Bruce Coventry, Ben French, and Bert Hyatt with a score of 29 shots,
