ART & BOWLS 27th TRIVIA NOOSA JUNIOR PIRATES

MEMORIAL HALL The club is calling on members of the community to submit ideas and suggestions that provide economic benefit to Cooroy for the refurbishment of the hall. The concept so far includes a commercial kitchen for the many home based businesses, a "virtual market" for producers, and Wii technology for our young and elder "youth". Email or post your thoughts to Sandy at the Club by August 31

ART WITH A TWIST Next evening is the major annual exhibition with wine connoisseur Martin Field presenting wine tasting and goodies from local producers including divine venison to be nibbled on. All funds raised will assist the Bloomhill Foundation, so come along on August 26 and enjoy this and the talents of artists such as Carole Moynihan from Tinbeerwah Art Group(pictured below) Entry is just $10 and tickets MUST be pre booked as limited.

A LITTLE BIT OF ITALY COMES TO COOROY!

We are very excited and looking forward to the opening of the new eatery in Opal Street which currently is scheduled for late August.
Be adventurous, book a table and be one of the first to come through and critique the offerings and check out the handiwork of the volunteer decorators ! :) Check the Rag for opening night.

WINNERS CIRCLE Congratulations to those lucky club members from the past month – Catherine Barry is off for a romantic weekend to Bendles Cottages, Carole Pheeny won a 3 night Getaway to Stradbroke Island, Russell Manning won a Dinner Party for himself, friends and Madonna, and Leesa Manning won the Hangover Raffle.

PROMOTIONS Over the next month there shall be some changes to the Raffles, Drinkers Club and other Club promotions in line with your requests and to improve viability as some are no longer able to sustain themselves during these tough economic times!

BOWLS It's Pennant season and time for some serious wins! Check out what's on over at Opal Street by paying a visit. Remember alternative opening times applicable until the opening of the new restaurant. For members that have yet to have a go please contact Yvonne on 54477716 or Russell Murray 0417433287 and book yourself a free game!
