The RSL Veterans Community & Courtesy bus is being sign written courtesy of Paul Reynolds who volunteered his talents . Many thanks to Paul. As if the excitement of Anzac Day was not enough, the Bowls Club has been nominated for QLD Club of the Year, and the preparation for the upcoming "You bring the Talent" where poets, musos, singers, comics, buskers – you name it – will all have the opportunity to jump on stage and vie for the Gold Coin Kitty has got even Joanie Boyce twittering! Backing will be provided by the extremely talented and versatile Steve Graham of Australia Zoo fame, and winners will all get a position in the final extravaganza. See Sandy or Karen for details.

Thanks to local businesses who attended the Chamber of Commerce Network evening over at the Bowls. Even though the barefoot game got rained out, it was an excellent event, with many new contacts and friends made.

B Grade Ladies Champ Bettina Winkler with A Grade champ Claire McGrath. Must be in the genes!

Mossman Memorial Bowls Club
Johnston Road, Mossman, Far North Queensland 4873

On the bowls front it was a month of Championships with both A & B Grade single finals held – in the men's B Grade, Steve Moore and Russell Butler went shot for shot until on the 31st end Russell took the lead 20 - 18. Another 5 very exciting ends were played, but things went Russell's way and the end result was 26 - 18 after a "Tony Abbott" marathon of 35 ends. In the Ladies B, Bettina Winkler and Claire McGrath went neck and neck until the towards the end of the match when Bettina surged to the lead (25-16). The Ladies A Grade saw Claire McGrath skimming through to grab the title from reigning champ Yvonne Pattinson. In the Men's, the "newbie" on the block Peter Bennett just defeated the injured Russell Murray in another thriller. Congratulations to all finalists on superb games, and to all players on the high standards of play throughout the Championships.
